

PRESS RELEASE

Tripoli - 10 January, 2014:

ATEX - International Exhibition Organizers, the organizer of Libya Build, the International Building & Construction Exhibition, announced that the 10th edition of the show will be organized for the second time at Tripoli Sport City during the period of 19th to 22nd May, 2014

Libya Build, The largest ever exhibition held in Libya and the fastest growing construction show in the region, welcomed in its 9th edition as a record 714 companies, 60% of the total exhibitors were international participants from 27 countries along with 14 national pavilion, covering 30,000 square meters of exhibition area. In addition, LibyaBuild proudly welcomed 24,637 visitors who made 29,877 visits during the 4 days of the show.

Preparation for the next edition is underway, confirmation received from all our supporting associations and country pavilion directors as well as all frequent International & Local companies.

Neptunus Tent structures of Holland has been awarded once again the contract to set up over 21,000 sq. mtrs of specialised tent structures with an increase of 6% of the total space from last edition.

Pan Libya for Exhibitions and Events, will once again watch over the project management of the venue, whilst providing all exhibition services for setting up of stands at this international event.

Further details on Libya Build Exhibition can be obtained from www.libyabuild.com

